Re: United States v. Elaine Carberry, 20 Cr. 544 (LJL)

Dear Judge Liman:

I represent Elaine Carberry in the above-referenced matter, having been appointed pursuant to the provisions of the Criminal Justice Act ("CJA"), 18 U.S.C. § 3006A on August 13, 2020.¹ I write, without objection from the Government or Pretrial Services, to respectfully request a temporary modification of their bail conditions.

Following their arrest on August 13, 2020, Mx. Carberry was released pursuant to several conditions, including a personal recognizance bond of $100,000 to be cosigned by two financially responsible persons, a curfew, travel restrictions to the Southern and Eastern Districts of New York,² and supervision as directed by Pretrial Services. Since their arrest, Mx. Carberry has been fully compliant with all their conditions of release.

Mx. Carberry's family will be gathering in New Hampshire from July 23, 2021, to July 31, 2021. They will be residing at 34 Terrell Way, Gilmanton Ironworks, New Hampshire 03837. Her present release conditions do not permit her to travel outside of New York and New Jersey. Accordingly, we respectfully request that Mx. Carberry's bail conditions be modified to allow them to travel to New Hampshire from July 23, 2021, to July 31, 2021 to be with their family.

Thank you for your consideration.

² Mx. Carberry's travel restrictions were later expanded to include New Jersey.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/

Anthony Cecutti
